

JEWS WILL PRAY FOR DEAD HEROES

Impressive Memorial Services Will Mark Day of Atonement.

AT BOTH CHURCHES

Reforms Worship in Temple Israel While Orthodox at Synagogue.

Prayers for Jews slain in the European war will be offered at the local Day of Atonement services today by both progressive and orthodox Jews. Tributes to those brave members of the race who have unhesitatingly given their lives for their country will be paid by the rabbis. The memorial services will also include supplications for other departed members of the faith.

The services of the progressive or reform Jews will be held in Temple Israel, 115 South Main street, while those of the orthodox congregation will be in the new synagogue of Eleventh and Boulder streets. The Day of Atonement services will begin at 10 o'clock this morning and last until sunset. Both meetings will begin the memorial services about 11 o'clock in the afternoon.

The ritual of the reform church for the most part is in English, while that of the orthodox congregation is mostly in Hebrew. Another distinctive feature is that the reform service includes a penitential psalm, while this is omitted in the orthodox service.

The recitations of the Jewish churches require that all members observe a strict fast during the Day of Atonement. The holiday began at 6 o'clock last night and closes at 6 o'clock tonight.

Falls on October 7.

The Jewish Day of Atonement, Yom Kippur, falls on the 19th day of the month of Tishri, corresponding to October 7 of this modern calendar. This service is known as Kol Nidre, an Aramaic word so called from the opening words of the introductory prayer. The note to which the prayer is chanted is so beautiful that it has become popular in a modernized version.

The Day of Atonement itself is the great White Fast and marks the end of the penitential days beginning with the New Year. In ancient times it was observed with elaborate ceremonial and mournful rites, but all the pomp of ritual disappeared with the downfall of Jerusalem. The vital significance of Yom Kippur, however, still remains, and it is on this day the spiritual day in the religious calendar of the Jewish people.

The primary purpose of the Day of Atonement is to offer an atonement in the ethical and spiritual life of the individual and in the community, to induce in the individual genuine contrition for the evil of the past and a yearning for amendment, coupled with the assurance that mercy and pardon await the truly penitent, without the necessity of mediation or vicarious sacrifice.

Blames Wilson.

"Many Americans," continued Senator Fall, "have been driven to the belief that the president of the United States, while possessing a keen intellectual understanding of the working and the world, and of world-wide having at his command a most voluminous vocabulary of synonyms and understanding the art of putting words together in a sentence to convey or hide a meaning, has not the conception of the sentiment underlying a beautifully turned phrase; and are being led to believe that the word 'humanity' carried a different meaning to McKinley than that which it bears to Wilson, that the words 'allegiance' and 'patrism' when falling from his lips are simply beautiful words, and like 'sparkling gems' in some well-turned phrase, are not drawn hot from the heart by the thought of the welfare of the country or its people."

Dance tonight at 8 o'clock at Madison Hall, 112A South Boulder.

Ad.

ECHOES

OUR idea of CONTUMPT is the EXPRESSION of
A man who HAS picked the RED SOX to win
WHEN he hears
SOMEONE offer
TO make a bet
ON Brooklyn.
Blown!

DENOUNCE WILSON FOR MEX POLICY

Senator Fall of New Mexico
Puts Out First Hand
Information.

EVERY BANK LOOTED

Aftermaths Driven From Their Homes and Property Is Taken.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—In a prepared speech entitled "the truth about Mexico" United States Senator Albert C. Fall of New Mexico at a Republican meeting here tonight denounced President Wilson's "policy of war" against Mexico, replying: "He declared that every American who really knows anything of the true conditions in Mexico knows that Carranza's abdication, despite Wilson's support is uttering to a full.

Senator Fall quoted at length from memory of the president's speeches, read numerous newspaper editorials and finished by giving a list of "American citizens" who he said had been killed in Mexico by armed Mexicans during the revolutionary period between December 1, 1910, and September 1, 1916. The list included 256 names.

Banks Looted.

Senator Fall declared that every bank and practically every business institution in Mexico has been looted; the railroads have been destroyed, the rails torn up and burned over tires until useless; all bridges destroyed.

"The funds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed, relation has been crushed out of existence and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree and all his barracks and stables by his followers or those of some other faction.

Blames Wilson.

"Many Americans," continued Senator Fall, "have been driven to the belief that the president of the United States, while possessing a keen intellectual understanding of the working and the world, and of world-wide having at his command a most voluminous vocabulary of synonyms and understanding the art of putting words together in a sentence to convey or hide a meaning, has not the conception of the sentiment underlying a beautifully turned phrase; and are being led to believe that the word 'humanity' carried a different meaning to McKinley than that which it bears to Wilson, that the words 'allegiance' and 'patrism' when falling from his lips are simply beautiful words, and like 'sparkling gems' in some well-turned phrase, are not drawn hot from the heart by the thought of the welfare of the country or its people."

Parents Determined to Annual Marriage of 13-Year-Old Girl

EXPECT TO SMASH BALLOON RECORD

Great Meet in Muskego

Will Begin at the Fairgrounds Today.

Work in Harmony.

"They are working out in different departments. They are wholly distinct. We shall never try what we know would be fatal to our own interests, to use any of our intelligent measures to enable us to repel neutrals by British trade or import the commercial enterprise of neutral nations."

Lord Robert did not mention the blockade in his exposition, but unquestionably he had it in mind.

"What one of the districts deserted during the war would wish to lose the opportunity to take advantage of American enterprise and capital?"
asked Lord Robert. "Suppose for instance no question of friendship were involved. Then it resolves itself into a question of plain, common sense business."

Get Our Views.

Articles in American newspapers that had been called to his attention said Lord Robert, seemed to take the ground that in the Paris measures were carried out they would discriminate against all neutrals, and I trade with the world, and serve the United States in potential trade relations with Germany or into trouble with Great Britain.

"All these forecasts," said the minister of war trade, "are examples of the hysterical tendency to draw ominous implications out of perfectly simple provisions. The provision as to the preservation of neutral resources during the period of reconstruction amounts to a provision that those among the allies who have suffered worst from the war will have the first time to the efforts of the tariff law
which bears his name, saying that if I prove a benefit upon American
labor and industry.

They All Defend Wilson.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 7.—United States Senator Oscar W. Underwood, of the 11th district, on the war and its conduct in Europe, said yesterday in defense of President Wilson's administration and denied that there was sectionalism in the Democratic party.

The senator devoted most of his time to the efforts of the tariff law
which bears his name, saying that if I prove a benefit upon American
labor and industry.

Who Made Him Eat.

DURHAM, N. C., Oct. 7.—Representative Claude Kinney, chairman of the House committee on ways and means, deplored in an address here to right that he had "swallowed the difficulty erupting out between President Wilson and myself at the last congress."

The automata tonight predicted that with full weather and favorable weather conditions in the world the world's record would probably be broken.

The city is crowded with thousands of visitors from all parts of the south to see the starting of the big ship.

Milk Shortage Is Acute.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Representatives of all except three of the large milk distributing companies here agreed tonight to meet the demands of the department's bureau for an increased quota and six months contracts under certain conditions. Only 10 per cent of the normal supply of milk was delivered in the city today.

DUTCH LEONARD, SENSA-TIONAL LEFT-HANDER

Must Pay the Price.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 6.—Thomas Hambrick, who was beaten from the hands of Parliament George Dugouge in New York city in September, 1915, is fixed for tomorrow morning at Sing Sing prison, but what was believed to be his last chance for life late today when Governor Whitman declined to extend executive clemency to him.
The governor twice previously, on August 31 and September 14, had granted a respite to the condemned a few hours before the time set for his death.

Ed Bowen's Mother Dead.

Ed Bowen's mother died. A telegram was received by the chief of police asking that he be found and to inform him that his mother was dead. He is quested to get in touch with Mrs. Frank Lee, Joplin, Mo.

NATURE.

As a fond mother, when the day is over,

Leads by the hand her little child to bed,

Half-leaving, half-reluctant to be led
And leaving his broken playthings on the floor,

Still gazing at them through the open
Not wholly reassured and comforted
By promises of other in their stead,

Which though more splendid, may not please him more;

So Nature deals with us, and takes away

Our playthings, one by one, and by the hand

Lends us so gently that we go

Searce knowing if we wish to go or stay,

Being too full of sleep to understand How far the unknown transcends the what we know.

—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

Sensational left-hander of the Boston

American league team, who has joined baseball's hall of fame by pitching a "no-hit, no-run" game against the St. Louis Browns. He is the fourth hurler to accomplish this feat during the present season, the others having been Hughes of the Boston Nationals, Ruth of the Philadelphia Americans and Foster, club-mate of Leonard.

GIVE US THIS DAY OUR DAILY BREAD,

FORGIVE US AS WE FORGIVE

TEMPTATION THROUGH US.

DELIVER US FROM EVIL.

Detroit Free Press.

—Detroit Free Press.